STAT

Thus in January 1952, only 150 grams of meat are replaced by 150 grams of rice, whereas heretofore 300 grams of meat have been replaced by 150 grams of rice and 300 grams of sugar. This means an increase by 150 grams of meat over the meat allocation of December 1951.

Children's food I will be delivered on coupons DV of food ration card II/a (these coupons are marked with a dot) plus a coupon for 500 grams of flour. Children's food II will be delivered upon presentation of coupons for 50 grams of flour. In addition, 500 grams of dehydrated meal will be delivered on coupon DV.

Children's food III will be delivered on coupons DV of food ration card II/a (these coupons are not marked with a dot) plus a coupon for 250 grams of fine flour.

Applications for milk are to be submitted not later than 5 January.

For children up to 2 years of age, three fourths of a liter of homogenized milk will be delivered on milk coupons of food ration card II/a (these coupons are marked with a dot). In Prague and Brno, children up to one year of age will get three fourths of a liter of full-cream milk with these coupons if the ration cards are stamped by the appropriate Prague or Brno ration-card issuing office.

Milk and butter consumers must make their applications not later than 5 January 1952 by returning their order cards for butter and milk. Milk will be distributed on the basis of the order cards for milk. Butter will be distributed on the basis of the coupons on which the consumers have received butter.

Bread and Pastry

The ration-card coupons for sugar, food, and soap are valid throughout January with the exception of coupons for bread, baked goods, and meat marked 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. The validity of these coupons is limited in the following way:

The coupons for bread, baked goods, and meat marked "1" and "2" are valid from 1 to 10 January inclusive, coupons marked "3" from 1 to 15 January, coupon marked "4" from 1 to 20 January, coupons marked "5" from 1 to 25 January, and coupons marked "6" from 1 to 31 January inclusive.
